2005 DePauw University Football — 29

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The longest run by a DePauw player in 14 years turned the game around as the Tigers rallied from a 7-0 first-half deficit to score 20 straight points on the way to a 20-14 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference win over host Rhodes. The victory was also the first DePauw win for head coach Bill Lynch.

Rhodes missed a 32-yard field goal on its first possession, but needed just two plays on its next series to take the early lead. Senior quarterback Dan Daniel Swanstrom teamed with Michael Hatcher for a 60-yard touchdown pass and Hunter Tigert added the point-after to give the Lynx a 7-0 lead with 2:56 left in the first.

Early in the second quarter the Tigers started on their own 7-yard line after Andrew Huff intercepted Swanstrom’s pass. On the third play of the series, freshman Jeremiah Marks got the call and answered with an 83-yard run down the left sideline that included running over a Lynx defender. Tyler Mallory’s extra point tied the contest at 7-7 with 10:38 remaining in the half. The run was the longest by a DePauw runner since Terry Dekey went 85 yards in a 1990 contest.

That single play seemed to turn the momentum around as the DePauw defense forced Rhodes to punt after they were unable to pick up a first down. Chris Gines returned the punt 40 yards to the Rhodes 28. Wiethoff’s 8-yard run and Mallory’s kick made it 14-7 with 6:49 remaining in the half. The DePauw defense continued to shine as it allowed only 14 yards and no first downs the remainder of the half.

Another defensive play set up a DePauw score in the third quarter when Greg Sylvester picked off a Swanstrom pass and returned it 38 yards to the Rhodes 27. Three plays later Mallory booted a 37-yard field goal to make it 17-7 with 8:37 left in the third.

The Tigers shut down the Lynx without a first down on the next series and the offense took over on the DePauw 47 with Karl Odenwald taking over for Wiethoff for a couple of series as Wiethoff was suffering from cramps in the 90-degree Memphis heat. Odenwald helped direct a series that moved to the Rhodes 23. Mallory was called upon and he kicked a 40-yard field goal to push the margin to 20-7 with 2:10 left in the third.

Early in the fourth, the Lynx closed the gap to six points when Swanstrom connected with Matt Dement for a 64-yard score and Tigert added the extra point to make it 20-14 with 13:36 left. The touchdown came on the play immediately after what appeared to be a fumble recovery by DePauw. However, an inadvertent official’s whistle forced a replay of the down.

The teams then exchanged two punts each before the offense took over on the DePauw 37-yard line and Mallory’s kick made it 14-7 with 6:49 remaining in the half. The DePauw defense continued to shine as it allowed only 14 yards and no first downs the remainder of the half.

DePauw was able to take 4:30 off the clock in 11 plays, but Mallory’s 38-yard field goal was blocked by Chris Castlebury with 1:54 remaining. The Tigers shut down the Lynx without a first down on the next series and the offense took over on the DePauw 47 with Karl Odenwald taking over for Wiethoff for a couple of series as Wiethoff was suffering from cramps in the 90-degree Memphis heat. Odenwald helped direct a series that moved to the Rhodes 23. Mallory was called upon and he kicked a 40-yard field goal to push the margin to 20-7 with 2:10 left in the third.

GREENCESTLE, Ind. — DePauw totaled 388 rushing yards and 498 total on the way to a 35-14 win over visiting Hope on a sunny, warm day at Blackstock Stadium.

Junior quarterback Ross Wiethoff rushed for a career-high 158 yards on 16 carries and completed 13 of 17 passes for 110 yards and three touchdowns. Freshman running back Jeremiah Marks also topped the 100-yard mark with a career-best 144 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries.

The Tigers scored first on a 21-yard pass from Wiethoff to Jamarcus Shephard with just 55 seconds left in the first quarter. Tyler Mallory hosted the first of five successful extra points to make it 7-0. The Flying Dutchmen tacked the score just over two minutes later as Jake Schrock hauled in a 56-yard pass from Joe Schwander.

DePauw took the lead for good on its next possession as Shephard returned the ensuing kickoff 64 yards to the Hope 27. Six plays later, Wiethoff and Shephard teamed for a 9-yard scoring pass. On its next series the Tigers made a 21-7 lead on Jason Murphy’s 3-yard run. Marks picked up 50 yards in the series including a 37-yard gain that set up the score.

A key point in the second half occurred when Wiethoff fumbled near midfield and the Tigers were assessed a personal foul on the play giving the Flying Dutchmen the ball on the DePauw 32. Schwander and Joe Verschueren teamed for a 30-yard gain to the 2-yard line, but the DePauw defense put together a goal-line stand with Luis Davila recording a fourth-down tackle of Paul Burgess for a 1-yard loss.

Later in the third, Wiethoff picked up 71 yards on a scrambler to the Hope 6 and then tossed a 2-yard touchdown pass to Brett Claxton to make it 28-7 with 6:27 left in the quarter. Hope scored on its next series as Schwander and Dustin Smith connected on a 7-yard scoring pass that was preceded by Schwander’s 44-yard strike to Schrock.

The final score of the contest came with 12:25 remaining when Marks scored on a 56-yard pass from Joe Schwander. The shutout was DePauw’s first since it lost to Trinity in 1999 and its first at home since a loss to Hope in 1994.

The Blue Devils’ defense held the Tigers to 39:26-20:34 time of possession when Marks scored on a 5-yard run. The freshman totaled 388 yards on 36 carries including only 73 on the ground. The Blue Devils’ Ryan Englebert rushed for 58 yards and caught eight passes for 28 yards. Ross Jones hauled in six for 81 yards.

Jeremiah Marks rushed for 144 yards on 16 carries in the 35-14 win over Hope.

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — Faced with fourth-and-goal from the DePauw 9-yard line, Trinity quarterback Dan DesPlaines rolled to his right and connected with Robert Kelner with just 10.6 seconds left and gave ninth-ranked Trinity a 29-28 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference win.

The touchdown completed a comeback that erased DePauw’s late 12-point lead. DePauw built a 28-16 advantage after Jason Murphy’s 15-yard run with 5:32 left. DePauw converted three consecutive third-down situations on the next possession and moved to the Trinity 33. Marks carried for gains of 18 and two yards but a fumbled snap at the Trinity 11 was recovered by Trinity’s Michael Perez.

Ian MacLeod’s third-down sack of DesPlaines on the next possession forced the visiting Tigers to punt and, after a penalty on the return, DePauw took over on its own 20.

Four plays later, Wiethoff tossed a 5-yard pass to Claxton for the score that put DePauw ahead 20-16. Wiethoff and Jonason teamed for the two-point conversion to make it 22-16 with 11:40 left.

DePauw linebacker Matt Koch then picked off DePlaines at the DePauw 45 with 11:01 left. Murphy converted a fourth-and-one situation with a 3-yard gain before Wiethoff and Jonason connected for an 8-yard gain to set up Murphy’s score. Wiethoff’s run for the two-point conversion failed.

Trinity entered the game ranked third in the nation with just over 555 total yards per game and totaled 443 with 139 coming in the final 5:21. DePauw finished with 373 total yards.

2005 DePauw University Football — 31

CHICAGO, Ill. — The Tigers improved to 3-2 on the season with a 28-24 win over host University of Chicago, but they had to survive another opponent comeback to do so.

Leading 28-12 after Jamarcus Shephard’s 57-yard touchdown reception from Ross Wiethoff with six minutes left in the third, the Tigers watched that lead dwindle on the next two Maroons’ possessions. Frank Brown’s 17-yard touchdown run with 57 seconds left in the third cut the lead to 28-18. DePauw’s next possession stalled and Chicago took over on its own 32.

The Maroons put together a 14-play, 68-yard drive that ended in Austin Way’s 1-yard run. Mike Morentzi missed his third extra-point attempt of the day and the Tigers still held a 28-24 advantage with 6:59 to play.
The Tigers started from their own 33 and picked up a couple of first downs before being faced with a fourth and eight from the Chicago 37. The punt snap sailed over punter Bill Riley's head and no one gained control until the ball popped out of a pile and DePauw's Eric Lewis scooped it up at the DePauw 28 and returned it to the Maroons' 24 for a first down.

DePauw was able to run the clock down to 53 seconds after putting Chicago to their own 44 before time expired.

Wiethoff put the Tigers ahead on their second possession with a 91-yard sideline scamper. Jack Stockert caught the margin to 7-6 with a 23-yard pass from Marc Zera. Jason Murphy's 6-yard run and Shephard's 50-yard pass from Wiethoff made it 21-6 at the half.

The Maroons closed the gap to 21-12 early in the third after T.J. Rajcevich picked off a Wiethoff pass and returned it 50 yards. Brown plowed in from six yards for the score with 12:49 left in the third. DePauw outgained Chicago 366-303 with Wiethoff rushing for 94 and Murphy adding 51. Wiethoff completed 13 of 21 passes for 201 yards and two touchdowns to Shephard. Finishing with 10 catches for 159 yards, Shephard moved into fifth place on DePauw's all-time reception list, fourth on the receiving charts and third among all-purpose leaders.

Zera completed 25 of 41 passes for the Maroons for 223 yards with seven each going to Micah Dawson and Stockert. Michael Ellkins led the Tigers with 11 tackles and added an interception. DePauw finished with four sacks including one each by Dustin Hertel, Ian MacLeod, Rob Camfield and Forest Andrews. Gabriel Fernandez led Chicago with 12 tackles and three tackles for losses totaling six yards.

DePauw jumped out to a 6-0 lead on a 1-yard run by Marks with 2:05 left in the second quarter, but the extra-point attempt was blocked. On the next possession, DePauw's Andrew Huff intercepted Wes Satterfield's pass at the DePauw 25 and returned it to the Sewanee 47. Six plays later Wiethoff teamed with Jamarcus Shephard for a 20-yard score and then connected with Brian Culp for the two-point conversion to make it 14-0 with just 8.8 seconds left in the half.

Midway through the third quarter, DePauw's Luis Davila blocked Jake Roberts' 29-yard field goal attempt and the Tigers took over on their own 20. DePauw wasted little time as Wiethoff scrambled 80 yards on the next play for a touchdown. The extra-point attempt was off the mark and DePauw held a 20-0 advantage with 6:45 left in the third.

Sewanee reached the board early in the fourth quarter on the way to a 27-13 Old Gold Day win.

DePauw 14, Wabash 7
November 13

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind. — DePauw scored on its first offensive series and its defense countered with a first-quarter goal-line stand to take the tone in a 14-7 Monon Bell win at Wabash.

The Tigers’ defense later forced a second-quarter turn-over deep in Wabash territory and converted it into their other score. With the victory, DePauw knotted the all-time series at 51-51-9 and extended its narrow margin in Monon Bell games to 55-32-6. For the 21 DePauw seniors, the win was their first over Wabash in their four years.

The game may well have come down to the opening 23 minutes. After opening the game with a three-and-out defensive stand, the Tigers began their opening drive on their own 36. Four straight carries by Matt McMahon netted 23 yards to the Wabash 41. Ross Wiethoff picked up one on a first-down run before scamping down the right sideline on second down and scoring from 40 yards. Tyler Mallory’s extra point gave the Tigers a 7-0 lead with 11:11 remaining in the first quarter.

Wabash took over on its 24, converted a couple of third downs and moved into the DePauw red zone. On a second down play the Tigers tackled Wabash quarterback Russ Harbaugh for a 3-yard loss but were called for a face mask which moved the ball to the 7. Following an incomplete pass, Wabash running back Aaron Lafitte picked up five yards on second down, but Michael Elkins stopped Lafitte for no gain on third-and-goal. Harbaugh’s fourth-down pass to Brandon Clifton was tipped at the line of scrimmage and fell incomplete.

Early in the second, the Tigers dug themselves out of poor field position after-stalling at their own nine and advancing to the Wabash 49. Punter Bill Riley pinned the Little Giants deep in their own territory with a punt that was returned to the Wabash 10. After Austin Gorrell picked up three yards on first down, Harbaugh committed the game’s only turnover when DePauw’s Brendan Bergian intercepted his pass at the 14 and dragged tacklers to the 1-yard line. Jason Murphy was stopped for no gain on first down, but got the call again on the next play and went in for the score that made it 14-0 with 6:58 left in the half.

Wabash again drove inside DePauw territory to the 30 on its next series, but a Little Giants holding penalty and Darron Lasley’s 9-yard sack on third down pushed Wabash back to midfield and forced them to punt. The Tigers ran out the clock and entered halftime with a 14-0 lead.

The Little Giants started DePauw on its opening drive of the second half and a short DePauw punt gave Wabash the ball at its own 48. Harbaugh converted a third down with a 12-yard pass to Brandon Roop before Wabash went to the ground to move the ball to the DePauw 9.

Wabash put its only points on the board when Lafitte tossed a halfback pass to Harbaugh for a touchdown to make it 14-7 with 7:51 left in the third.

The teams exchanged punts throughout the rest of the third period before DePauw took over on its own 27 with 10:53 left in the game. The ground attack of McMahon, Jeremiah Marks and Wiethoff drove the Tigers to the Wabash 41. The big play in the drive came from the DePauw 48 when Marks converted a fourth-and-inches. The Tigers were forced to punt with four minutes left and Wiethoff’s 53-yard punt landed in the end zone for a touchback.

The Little Giants took over on their own 20 with Harbaugh running for six yards and completing a pair of passes to the Wabash 41. The Tigers were whistled for pass interference on the next play which moved the ball inside DePauw territory at the Tigers’ 44.

After an incomplete pass on first down, Wabash picked up one yard on Gorrell’s run before Harbaugh was sacked by Eric Lewis for a two-yard loss on third down. Harbaugh’s fourth-down pass, intended for Roop, fell short after Ian Jan and Marcus Gerhardstein’s combined pressure giving DePauw the ball with just 1:16 left.

The Tigers sealed the win when McMahon rumbled for 15 yards on a second-down play and DePauw ran out the clock.

In a game with just 457 yards of offense between the two teams, DePauw edged the Little Giants 231-226 in total offense. The Tigers finished with 221 rushing yards with Marks garnering 91, followed by McMahon with 79 and Wiethoff with 64. Wiethoff completed just 2-of-7 passes for 10 yards with both going to Jamarcus Shephard.

Gorrell led Wabash with 97 rushing yards, while Lafitte was limited to just 31. Harbaugh completed nine of 21 passes for 90 yards including three to Summers for 33 yards.

The defenses really told the story in this game as Lewis led DePauw with nine tackles and Elkins followed with eight. The Tigers sacked Harbaugh five times with Lewis leading the way with three, followed by Lasley with one and Barnett with two.

Adrian Penenberg led the Little Giants with 15 tackles including two for losses. Reggie Foley had eight tackles and one of two Wabash sacks on the day. Tamarco White had the other sack.
