GReENCuST, Ind. — Visiting Wesley College built a 24-point lead early in the third before DePauw rallied with 19 straight points, but Tiger quarterback Ross Wiethoff’s pass was intercepted by Mario Harris in the end zone as time expired giving the Wolverines a 31-26 win in the season opener for both teams at Blackstock Stadium.

Wesley reached the board first on Chris Carlton’s 44-yard field goal with 10:42 left in the first on a drive that started after the Wolverines recovered a DePauw fumble on the third play of the game.

The Tigers took their only lead of the game at 7-3 on Wiethoff’s 1-yard run with 5:21 remaining in the first which capped a 10-play, 74-yard drive.

Larry Beavers put the Wolverines ahead for good with a 49-yard pass reception from Chris Warrick with 3:09 left in the quarter and Wesley extended the margin to 17-7 on Jon Lanouette’s 14-yard catch from Warrick with 1:39 remaining in the half. Kevin Nelson’s 2-yard run with 6:21 left in the half made it 24-7.

Wesley drove 74 yards in six plays in its opening series of the second half capped by Beavers’ 27-yard reception from Warrick with 13:12 left in the third.

DePauw came right back with a 10-play, 78-yard drive with Jeremiah Marks scoring on a 4-yard run with 8:35 remaining in the quarter. Jon Drummond blocked Tyler Mallory’s extra point attempt keeping the score at 31-27.

After stopping the Wolverines on downs, the Tigers scored on their next possession with Wiethoff teaming with Brian Culp for a 29-yard score with 2:14 left in the third to make it 31-20.

DePauw’s defense again shut down Wesley on downs and the Tigers took over on their own 27. The hosts converted a third down on Wiethoff’s 25-yard pass to Chase Jonason and a fourth-and-four from the Wesley 30 when the same two teamed for a 7-yard pass play. Faced with a fourth-and-six from the Wesley 15, Wiethoff’s pitch was ruled a lateral which the Wolverines recovered at the 1.

DePauw 38, Hope 12
September 17

HOLLAND, Mich. — DePauw’s offense totaled 529 yards including 337 in the first half and the defense limited Hope to just 248 yards on the way to a 38-12 win over the Flying Dutchmen.

A game in which DePauw dominated throughout certainly didn’t start out that way for the Tigers. Hope took the opening kickoff and drove to the DePauw 14 before Nate Barnett was called on to attempt a 31-yard field goal. Michael McNelis blocked the kick and the Tigers returned it to their own 36.

Jeremiah Marks fumbled on the Tigers’ first play from scrimmage and Hope recovered at the DePauw 46. The Flying Dutchmen fumbled to pick up a first down and were forced to punt.

DePauw took over on its own 19 and quickly moved downfield as Marks picked up 26 yards on the first play of the series. Quarterback Ross Wiethoff completed a 10-yard pass to Brian Culp before the Tigers ran the ball the next 10 plays with Marks covering the final two yards to give the Tigers a 6-0 lead. Tyler Mallory’s first of five successful extra points made it 7-0 with 3:30 left in the first.

The Tigers’ defense again stopped Hope without a first down and, with the benefit of a Hope personal foul on the punt, DePauw took over on its own 47. Wiethoff completed a 19-yard, third-down pass to Culp on third down and, on the next play, Culp threw a reverse pass to Wiethoff for 41 yards to the Hope 7. Jason Murphy scored on the next play with a 7-yard run that made it 21-0 with 11:26 left in the half.

DePauw made it 28-0 as Wiethoff tossed a 53-yard scoring pass to David Araiza with 4:46 remaining in the half. The play was the second of the drive as Marks rushed for 17 on the first play.

Hope drove to the DePauw 32 late in the half, but Andrew Huff picked off Josh Schwander’s fourth down pass at the DePauw 12 and returned it to the Hope 43. Seven plays later, Wiethoff tossed an 18-yard pass to Jonason to make it 35-0 with three seconds left in the half.

DePauw thoroughly dominated the first half as it outscored Hope 33-12 and held a 14-0 advantage in first downs.

The Flying Dutchmen got on the board in the third as Schwander teamed with Jack Keifer for a 13-yard scoring play immediately after Wiethoff fumbled and Hope’s Matt Rugenstein recovered.

Mallory bootied a 21-yard field goal as time expired in the third and Hope rounded out the scoring with 5:56 remaining in the game as Schwander completed a 51-yard pass to Scott Greenman.

Wiethoff finished with eight of 11 passing for 231 yards and two touchdowns and also rushed for 41 yards and a score. The Tigers totaled 275 yards through the air in the win. Culp had four catches for 62 yards with two touchdowns and also rushed for 41 yards and two touchdowns and also rushed for 41 yards.

The performance was Marks’ sixth 100-yard performance in his 11 career games.

Schwander completed just nine of 38 passes for 152 yards with three going to Brady Wilson for 55 yards. Greenman had two catches for 55 yards. David Boosko earned the ball 17 times for 55 yards as the Flying Dutchmen were held to just 96 rushing yards.

The DePauw defense shut down Hope three times inside the DePauw 15 and blocked three kicks on the day. Rob Farrow led DePauw with eight tackles, while Greg Sylvester added six. Zach Hutzin paced Hope with 13 tackles.

Tigers possessed the ball over 15 minutes longer than did the Flying Dutchmen.

DePauw at Trinity (canceled)
September 24

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — DePauw’s football game at Trinity University on Saturday, September 24, in San Antonio was canceled due to the possible impact of Hurricane Rita.

DePauw officials made the decision on Thursday afternoon after monitoring the situation throughout the entire week.

“Our number one priority is the well-being and safety of our student-athletes, coaches, support staff and fans,” DePauw Director of Athletics Page Cotton said.

DePauw 33, Chicago 9
October 1

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — Sophomore Jeremiah Marks rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns to lead DePauw to a 33-9 victory over visiting University of Chicago on Family Weekend.

The Tigers totaled 444 yards of offense including 316 on the ground, while the defense limited Chicago to 323 yards and only 79 on the ground.

DePauw drove to the Chicago 18 on its first series of the game, but quarterback Ross Wiethoff was picked off in the end zone by Todd Young. The Maroons then drove... to the DePauw 20 before the Tigers’ defense stopped them on downs.

The Tigers then embarked on a 15-play, 83-yard drive that consumed 8:01 culminating in Marks’ 2-yard run with 11:54 left in the first half. Tyler Mallory’s extra-point attempt was blocked and the Tigers held a 6-0 lead.

The Maroons again drove into DePauw territory but Aaron Key stopped Chicago’s Chuck Little for a 1-yard loss on fourth down at the Tigers’ 44.

Mallory’s 30-yard field goal was wide left with 4:33 remaining in the half and Chicago quickly moved to the DePauw 34, but again the defense came up big as Rob Farr row sacked Chicago quarterback Matt Rinklin for a 3-yard loss. DePauw took a 6-0 advantage into halftime.

DePauw opened the second half with touchdowns on each of its first two drives. Marks scored on another 2-yard run with 12:20 left in the third after Wiethoff scrambled 41 yards on the previous play to set up the score. The Tigers’ try for two failed and they still held a 12-0 lead.

The Maroons again drove to the DePauw 20 before the Tigers’ defense stopped them on downs.

The Tigers’ defense forced a three-and-out series and DePauw took over on its own 46. Wiethoff rushed for six yards on first down and Dorrius Ford scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 58-yard run. Mallory’s kick made it 19-0.

Chicago got on the board on Mike Morzenti’s 32-yard field goal with 1:59 left in the third and closed the gap to 19-6 on Rinklin’s 5-yard pass to Colin Carrier with 11:53 left in the game that capped a 6-play, 71-yard series. The two-point conversion pass failed.

On the ensuing drive, Wiethoff scored on a 5-yard run with 6:32 left in the contest and Mallory’s point-after made it 26-6. DePauw capped off the scoring when it forced a fumble on a Chicago punt return and recovered on the Chicago 18. Daniel Stauffer rushed for three yards on first down and then scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 15-yard run with 1:48 remaining.

Marks topped the 100-yard mark for the third time in as many games this season with his 141 yards. It also marked the seventh time in 12 career games that Marks topped the century mark. Ford finished with a career-high 90 yards on just nine carries with Wiethoff totaling 71 on eight tries. Rinklin and Micah Dawson each rushed for 19 yards for the Maroons.

Wiethoff completed 10 of 16 passes for 122 yards, but was intercepted three times. Rinklin finished with 233 yards and a touchdown on 16-of-35 passing. Brian Culp led DePauw with five catches for 49 yards, while Dawson had five grabs for 147 yards.

Curtan Clark and Key each had nine tackles for the Tigers with Key and Dustin Hertel each recording two tackles for loss. The Tigers sacked Chicago three times as Farrow and Hertel each had one with Key and Joseph DiSalvo sharing one. Scott Johnson led Chicago with 13 tackles, while Gaby Fernandez finished with 13.

DePauw 34, Sewanee 0 October 8

SEWANEE, Tenn. — Sophomore Jeremiah Marks rushed for all five of DePauw’s touchdowns and set the Ti gers’ single-game scoring record, while the defense recorded its first shutout in two years in a 34-0 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference win over Sewanee on a fog-covered McGee Field. The shutout was DePauw’s first since a 21-0 victory at Sewanee on October 11, 2003.

Marks finished with 161 rushing yards on 28 carries and his five touchdowns broke the DePauw single-game record for rushing touchdowns, total touchdowns and points. The previous record of four overall touchdowns was shared by Jamarcus Shephard (vs. Millsaps, 2003), Rick Lindlow (at Oberlin, 1982) and Bert Anson (vs. Oberlin, 1930). The performance was Marks’ fourth 100-yard game of the season and eighth in 13 career games.

DePauw jumped out to a 21-0 halftime lead as Marks scored on three 1-yard runs. Marks then added a pair of 3-yard runs in the third quarter to cap the scoring.

The Tigers’ first score came on the second play after Ryan Shatto recovered a DePauw punt that glanced off a Sewanee player. Shatto recovered at the Sewanee 1-yard line and Marks punched it in on DePauw’s second scrimmage play.

DePauw’s second score was set up in nearly the same fashion as the Tigers recovered another Sewanee muffed punt return early in the second quarter. The Tigers started on the Sewanee 32 and, after a Ross Wiethoff incomplete pass, Marks carried the ball seven straight times to push the lead to 14-0 with 10:20 left in the half.

Aaron Key’s third-down sack of Sewanee quarterback Wes Satterfield forced Sewanee punt late in the second and the Tigers again started a drive in Sewanee territory at the 49. After Wiethoff picked up 10 on first down, Marks carried four straight times to make it 20-0 with 2:46 left in the half.

Early in the third, David Araiza returned a Sewanee punt 29 yards to the Sewanee 25. Wiethoff rushed for 22 yards on the first play and Marks scored his fourth touchdown on the next to make it 27-0.

Greg Sylvester intercepted Satterfield on Sewanee’s next possession and the Tigers took over on their own 48. Marks carried three straight times to the Sewanee 16 and Wiethoff rushed three yards to the 13 before Marks followed with a 10-yard run and the final 3-yard score with 9:05 left in the third.

The Tigers totaled 281 yards of offense including 257 on the ground and held Sewanee to just 185 total yards. In addition to Marks’ 161 yards, Dorrius Ford totaled 49 and Wiethoff had 32. Satterfield paced Sewanee with 80 of their 157 rushing yards. Wiethoff completed two of six passes for 24 yards, while Satterfield connected on four of 19 for 28 yards.

Key led the Tigers with 10 tackles with Curtan Clark adding nine. The Tigers picked off Satterfield three times with Eric Rausch, Sylvester and Reid Scherrer each recording one. Sewanee only crossed midfield in three of its 15 drives. Harlin Hickerson led Sewanee with 16 tackles and two sacks and Will Smith added 10 tackles.

October 15

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — DePauw's defense limited visiting Rhodes to just 148 yards of offense and sacked Lynx quarterbacks six times as the Tigers came away with a 7-3 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference victory at Blackstock Stadium.

DePauw improved to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in the SCAC with its fourth straight win and remained in a first-place tie with Trinity in the conference standings. Rhodes dropped to 1-5 overall and 0-3 in the SCAC.

The Tigers' lone score of the game came early in the second quarter after they took over on their own 39 following Dustin Hertel's interception of a Justin Sealand pass with 1:53 left in the first. DePauw advanced to the Rhodes 1, but couldn't reach paydirt on third and fourth down plays.

However, the Lynx were whistled for pass interference on the fourth down pass attempt by DePauw quarterback Ross Wiethoff giving the Tigers first-and-goal from inside the Rhodes 1. Jason Murphy ran it in for the score on the next play and Tyler Mallory's point after made it 7-0 with 11:17 left in the half.

On the ensuing series, Rhodes drove to the DePauw 35 before DePauw's Forest Andrews sacked Sealand for a 5-yard loss on fourth down.

Later in the quarter, the Tigers' Eric Lewis sacked Sealand on first down and forced a fumble that the Tigers recovered at the Rhodes 31. DePauw advanced to the Lynx 25 before Mallory was called upon to attempt a 42-yard field goal. His boot hit the crossbar and bounced back and the score remained 7-0.

Rhodes started the opening drive of the second half at its own 30 and crossed midfield on a 29-yard run by Tyler Lake. They drove to the DePauw 22, but Sealand was whistled for a 2-yard loss on fourth down by Rob Farrow and Darron Lasley.

The Lynx's lone score was set up midway through the fourth when Wiethoff was sacked by Daniel Brunner at the DePauw 30 and Will Bartholomew recovered the loose ball at the DePauw 31. Rhodes picked up a first down on a pair of runs by Lake, but the DePauw defense again applied the pressure with a pair of tackles for loss. Hunter Tinter then boosted a 37-yard field goal with 4:04 remaining to make it 7-3.

Tiger's kickoff landed out-of-bounds and DePauw took over on its own 35. The Tigers converted a pair of third downs and then were able to run the clock out for the victory.

DePauw 51, Millsaps 14

October 22

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — DePauw quarterback Ross Wiethoff rushed for 103 yards and threw for 205 to lead the host Tigers to a 51-14 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference victory over Millsaps.

The victory was DePauw's fifth straight as it improved to 5-1 overall and 3-0 in the SCAC. Millsaps dropped to 1-5 overall and 0-3 in the conference.

DePauw also became just the 19th NCAA Division III school to record 300 victories as it improved its all-time record to 500-450-118 in 118 seasons of competition.

The Tigers set the tone on the game's first play when Wiethoff teamed with tight end Chase Jonason for a 50-yard gain. Jason Murphy then carried the ball five straight times and scored from three yards out with 11:58 left in the first. Tyler Mallory's first of six successful extra-point attempts made it 7-0.

Mallory boosted a 28-yard field goal with 43 seconds remaining in the first to make it 10-0 before Murphy scored on a 1-yard run with 9:33 left in the half to push the lead to 17-0.

The Majors reached the board on Tyson Roy's 4-yard run (Mello kick), 5:55

DePauw 14, Centre 7
October 29

GREENCASTLE, Ind. — The Tiger defense stopped Centre on four straight plays at the 4-yard line with less than four minutes left and preserved a 14-7 Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference victory over the Colonels.

With its sixth straight win, the Tigers improved to 6-1 overall and remained in a first-place tie in the SCAC with Trinity with a 4-0 SCAC record. Centre dropped to 6-3 overall and 2-3 in the conference.

Trailing 14-7 with 7:37 left in the fourth, Centre started on its own 28 and converted two straight third downs to advance to the DePauw 28. Adam Blandford rushed for six yards and Adam Clark for seven yards before Blandford carried two times for 11 yards to the DePauw 4.

Blandford was stopped for no gain on first down before Kevin Phelps threw an incomplete pass on third down. Blandford again was held for no gain on third down before Phelps failed to connect on the fourth down pass play.

Jeremiah Marks picked up a first down after three straight carries netted 13 yards and the Tigers were then able to run out the clock.

DePauw scored all of its points in the second quarter as Jason Murphy rushed for a 13-yard score with 13:36 left in the second, capping a nine play, 56-yard drive. Tyler Mallory’s extra point made it 7-0.

The Colonels’ lone scoring drive started late in the third quarter and featured six yards and Adam Blandford for seven yards before Blandford was stopped for no gain on first down and an 8-yard sack with Adam Hay.

Hertel and Forest Andrews each recorded one sack.

Darron Lasley led the DePauw defense with a career-led Centre with six catches for 50 yards.

DePauw totaled 191 yards on the ground led by Marks with 117 in 18 carries for his ninth career 100-yard game in 16 games. Blandford paced the Colonels with 155 yards on 31 times as Centre finished with 246 on the ground.

The Wabash win marked the first time since 1984 that DePauw's lead and then added a fourth-quarter score on the way to a 17-14 victory. The teams combined to convert 6-of-7 fourth down plays, but DePauw failed to convert any of their 14 third down chances with the Little Giants going 5-for-15.

The DePauw lead also marked the first time since 1984 that the Monon Bell exchanged hands on consecutive years and was the ninth in the last 16 Bell games decided by a touchdown or less.

Chris Ogden's 5-yard option run on fourth down and goal with 3:11 left in the game gave Wabash the margin to stay and preserved the victory. The Tigers were forced to punt on their next series, but Jon Williams' punt touched the ground on the next play. Following a DePauw illegal procedure penalty, King again broke up a Wiethoff pass before the loss on the next play. The Little Giants finished with 257 yards and were held to just 178 through the air after entering the game ranked ninth in Division III with over 330 yards per game. Brandon Roop totaled 51 yards on 14 tries with Ogden adding 45 on 12 carries. Harbaugh completed 15-of-27 and established a Wabash single-season passing yardage record. Green and Eric Summer each caught four passes to lead the Little Giants.
