The return of nine lettermen including four starters along with the addition of a talented freshman class has DePauw 14th-year head coach Bill Fenlon excited about the potential of the 2005-06 Tigers.

“I like this group a lot,” Fenlon said. “We have a really big upside.”

The Tigers are coming off a 12-13 season in which they dropped seven games by eight or fewer points.

DePauw returns a pair of starters in the post in sophomores Stephen Schott and Brian Oilar.

Schott, who started every game as a freshman, had one of the best rookie seasons in DePauw history with team highs of 12.5 points and 7.4 rebounds per game. He posted seven double-doubles during the season and ranked third in the SCAC in rebounding.

Oilar averaged 6.5 points and 4.6 rebounds in his freshman campaign and knocked down 19 three-pointers. He hit the game-winning three-pointer against Wabash in just his fifth collegiate game.

Junior Matt McDonald missed his entire sophomore season due to a preseason injury after finishing strong in his first season.

Schott started 21 games last season and contributed 9.3 points and 4.0 rebounds per contest. He also connected on 50 percent of his field goal tries.

Brown, who will also see some time inside, averaged 8.1 points per game and led the team with 53.4 percent shooting from the floor.

The SCAC race should again be extremely challenging. In voting by the SCAC’s 10 head coaches, DePauw was picked to finish tied for third this season with two-time defending champion Trinity.

Southwestern was selected first with 99 points followed by Centre with 89. DePauw and Trinity each totaled 73 points. Rose-Hulman, Millsaps, Sewanee, Oglethorpe, Rhodes and Hendrix rounded out the coaches’ picks.

In addition to a tough conference schedule, the Tigers open with an exhibition against Division I Evansville and, on December 23, travel to Evanston, Ill., to face Northwestern University. The game marks the DePauw’s first regular season contest against a Division I opponent since the 1994-95 season and the first against a Big Ten school since it opened the 1975-76 season against Wisconsin.

The 2005-06 season marks the 100th year of basketball at DePauw. The Tigers’ first season was in 1904-05 and DePauw has played every year since except during the 1913-14 and 1914-15 seasons.

DePauw enters its centennial season with an all-time record of 1138-890-2 which ranks 27th amongst Division III schools in terms of victories.
